SCS In Cooperation Guidelines

Cooperation specifically excludes financial participation, responsibility, or liability on the part of SCS. Cooperation will be undertaken only if all of the following are established or estimated to be true:

1. Benefits will accrue to the conference because of cooperation of SCS.
2. Benefits will accrue to SCS because of the cooperation.
3. SCS members will be offered a registration discount to the conference.
4. The sponsoring organization agrees to state that this conference is "in-cooperation with SCS" in all references to the conference including conference promotions, proceedings, press releases, etc.
5. The sponsoring organizers will provide acknowledgement of SCS on their conference web page.
6. The financial sponsors shall ensure that the conference is conducted in accordance with all applicable United States (U.S.) and non-U.S. laws and the financial Sponsor (s) shall make all necessary corporate, tax and other registrations and obtain all required licenses and permits.
7. The sponsoring event agrees not to transfer any right, interest or claim under this agreement to SCS
8. The sponsoring event is in agreement that this agreement between SCS and the sponsoring organization is not intended to constitute a binding expression of mutual intent of the parties regarding the subject matter hereof and neither party (nor any of their representatives) shall have any legally binding obligations, rights or liabilities of any nature to any party here or to any other persons pursuant to this agreement.
9. The sponsoring organization agrees to provide SCS marketing materials to conference attendees.

In-Cooperation consists of

Use of the SCS logo for a period of time before the event and 30 days after the event and not prior to the announcement of the SCS ANNSIM event.

The Process

Submit the SCS In-Cooperation request form and be aware that SCS will only approve in cooperation agreements for a conference if the dates from the sponsoring organizations do not overlap with any of SCS events and approval may take up to two weeks after receipt of application.
